Coral makes every reasonable effort to ensure that it does not make errors in accepting bets. However, we cannot guarantee that errors will not happen or that our services/products will at all times perform correctly. Various kinds of mistakes and errors can occur – technical, human and otherwise – and you understand and agree that we can only provide our betting products and services to you, and you must accept them, in the condition that we make In this section 11 we describe the things that can go wrong and the rights that we have in such events. In section 12 below we set out how we will not be liable to you when these (and other) things go wrong. You should be aware however that these sections do not override or cancel out any rights that you may have under consumer laws and regulations and we do not intend that they should. Below are some key definitions to help you understand this section:

An "Error" refers to a mistake or error that is not exclusively technical, for example the mistaken posting of incorrect odds, the offer of incorrect prices or terms (such as handlcap provisions) for participation in a promotion or bet. Errors can arise from human mistakes, administrative, operational or systems fallures and combinations of all of these. For example, a bet might be offered mistakenly at a price that is substantially out of line with the general market. Examples where this would apply are: The price is recorded as 100-1 when the price on offer in the general market is 10-1; The margins for handicap betting have been reversed

An "Interruption" refers to an interruption in a gambling transaction for any reason, for example an interruption caused by the failure of the internet or connectivity, or severe latency in communications, or a technical failure due A "Malfunction" refers to where an automated process falls to operate as designed or intended, for example wher A Manunction refers to where an automated process rails to operate as designed or intended, for example where a place of computer software produces a deviation from its intended performance specifications or parameters, o where two pieces of software fall to interface or communicate with each other in the manner intended or designed in either case so as to produce a result which is not the result that was intended or designed. These malfunctions may or may not be apparent to us or to you and they may only come to light as and when settlement instructions outcomes, winnings or cashouts are investigated and analysed retrospectively. Where any of the above occur, we will deal with them as described below in this section and it is important that you understand and agree to the following before you use our services, as we made clear in the 'important informatioi at the top of this poster:

In the event of a Malfunction or Error, including where a bet is accepted that is inconsistent with the original slip In the event of a Malfunction or Error, including where a bet is accepted that is inconsistent with the original slip (where available), we will have the right to void the relevant transaction and withhold the relevant winnings, or alternatively in some circumstances at our discretion to pay winnings at what we consider to be the correct price or as per the original betting slip (to establish the correct price Coral will consider prices available in the general market at the time the bet was made, including the prices offered by our retail competitors). This applies even if the relevant transaction could have produced the same or similar amount of winnings without the intervention of the Malfunction or Error and it applies whether the Malfunction or Error was apparent to you or to us or not. If we mistakenly pay you any such winnings, you agree that you will pay them back to us as and when we ask you to. Where any Malfunction or Error is or becomes apparent or obvious to you, or you suspect that a Malfunction or Error may be occurring, you agree that you will not use (or will immediately stop using) the relevant part of our service, and you will report it to us immediately.

Nothing in the Rules is intended to, or will, exclude or limit our liability for death or personal injury resulting from our legligence; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; for breach by us of your statutory rights as a consumer; or for any other liability which we may not limit or exclude under applicable law. Subject to the paragraph above, (a) we accept no liability for any claims, damages or losses which were not foreseeable by you and us at the time of you first accepted the Rules or which arise out of or in connection with your use of or inability to use any of our betting locations, products or services including as a result of (i) any Error, interruption or Malfunction, (ii) your breach of these Rules including any Prohibited Activity on your part, or (iii) any action on our part as permitted under these Rules; and (b) our products and services are provided on an "as is" basis and we make no specific warranty or representation in relation to their quality, completeness or accuracy. As we made clear in the 'Important Information' at the top of this poster, we will not be liable to you under the ules, and nor do we owe you a duty of care in respect of, our compliance or non-compliance with any regulatory

Bets are placed with Coral by writing instructions on a betting slip or completing a "Quick slip". A Quick slip is like that used by the National Lottery/Lotto and requires you to indicate your stake, selections and bet type by marking a horizontal line in the appropriate box. We reserve the right to refuse to accept the whole or any part of any bet offered to us. A bet will only be deemed made in our Electronic Point of Sale (EPoS) system when your betting slip has been paid for and we have provided you with a valid betting receipt. Each valid betting receipt has a unique bet ID number printed on it, the date/ time of acceptance, plus an image of your bet (or printed details of your bet in case of Quick slip). For your bet to be valid, the bet ID number and image or printed bet details must be registered on our EPoS system. No bet is valid until we have provided you with a receipt showing that the bet has been accepted by us. You acknowledge that by placing a bet you are not relying on any statement of any Coral employee regarding the subject matter of the bet. You should check your receipt to verify that your bet selection(s), instructions, stake paid and any odds (where applicable) have been correctly recorded before leaving the shop. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that your receipt reflects the bet you intended to place as mistakes cannot be rectified after the relevant event(s) have commenced. This includes where a selection may have been incorrectly captured or omitted by our system during the acceptance process. If the details on the original betting slip are incorrect or the image unclear, the bet will be made void and you will be asked to complete a new slip before the chosen event commences. Where Bets are placed with Coral by writing instructions on a betting slip or completing a "Ouick slip". A Ouick slip is like he bet will be made void and you will be asked to complete a new slip before the chosen event commences. Where you regularly place a particular type of bet, but inadvertently omit the instructions, we reserve the right to refer to your previous betting history in order to settle a bet where circumstances permi Late Bets - Bets can only be placed on the outcome of a future event or race. If Coral mistakenly accepts a bet for an event or race that has already started then the bet will be void and your stake returned, except in the following circumstances: In the case of horse race single and multiple bets (only), if a bet is taken after the start of an event i will still be valid if it is placed before the automatic "no more bets time" recorded by our EPOS system. For horse races the following "no more bets times" will apply after the start depending on the race distance:

6 Furlongs 200 yards and under - 7 seconds; 6 Furlongs 201 yards up to 1 mile - 12 seconds; Over 1 mile up to 1 mile  $\theta$  7 furlongs - 17 seconds; Over 1 mile  $\theta$  7 furlongs - 22 seconds. In the case of greyhound and virtual racing/sports, where our EPOS systems record an automatic "no more bets time", if a bet is taken after the start of an event it will still be valid if it is placed before the automatic "no more bets time". For greyhound races, the automatic "no more bets time" is set at 5 seconds after the start of the race (10 seconds for Australian greyhound races), for virtual racing/sports the automatic "no more bets time" is set at 5 seconds after the start of the event. In the case of real football matches, bets will remain valid where "Betting in Play" or the celebrat matches to avoid the first part of the country in the case of real football matches, bets will remain valid where "Betting in Play" or the celebrat matches to avoid the first part of the celebrat matches are the celebrat matches. on the selected market is available. Where it is not available, bets will be valid if they are placed within five minute of kick-off, providing there has been no score in the match or no player has been sent off. If a player has been ser off or there has been a goal, or a penalty has been awarded but not yet taken, then the bet will be yold and the stake returned. For any other sports please sée visit https://help.coral.co.uk/en/sports-help/sports-rules) Taking a Price - In order to take a price on a bet or selection our staff must mark the correct price on the betting slip prior to the bet being processed. If they inadvertently mark an incorrect price on the slip, the bet will stand at the correct price at the time the bet was accepted. If the price has been written on by a customer, it must be verified on the betting slip by a member of staff in order to be valid. If the price has not been verified by a member of staff, the bet will stand if the price was correct at the time the bet was placed - If the price was incorrect, the bet will stand at the correct price at the time the bet was accepted. If a price is taken on a selection it will be applied to that selection every time it appears on the slip, unless the bet instructions on the slip specifically state otherwise. If no price is indicated on the slip, the bet will be settled according to the Starting Price ("SP") where available, or, in the case of sports betting, on the valid price at the time the bet was placed. If Tote or PMU is not specifically stated at the time the bet is placed, bets will be settled at the industry SP if available. If no Industry SP is available, bets will be settled at the coral SP, where there is no Coral SP, bets will be settled at the 'standard' Tote or PMU return even if this was not specifically stated. For 'coupling' to take effect, PMU must be written on the slip at time of placement.

In addition to the above there may be occasions where the 'Best Odds Guaranteed' ("BOG") promotion is offered or specified races. In such instances there is a similar requirement for individual prices to be marked and/or initialled on the slip by a member of staff. Where there is a high volume of customers, members of staff may offer a customer the opportunity to have their slip marked with the letters 'BOG' which will automatically assign the latest price for each qualifying selection throughout the slip, as recorded in our system at the time of bet acceptance. Should customers gree, individual prices will not be recorded on the slip, which will be marked 'BOG' instead. Please note that the maximum unit stake for any bet accepted on this basis is 20 pence. Any bet inadvertently accepted with a unit stake greater than 20 pence will be settled at 'Starting Price', irrespective of 'BOG' being referenced

Payment for bets can be made as follows:

Coral betting vouchers Debit Card* ** Bank or building society banker's draft* (if this is arranged in advance with the shop manager) *For payment by banker's draft or debit card, please allow at least 15 minutes for staff to complete our clearance procedures. These procedures need to be completed before the bet can be accepted. ** Where payment for a bet is made directly by Debit Card in shop, any returns must go back to the same card in accordance with the issuing bank's card-scheme rules and cannot be withdrawn as cash.

For most bets in our shops there is a minimum stake of 20 pence a slip (50 pence for football coupons). For multiple bets the minimum stake unit is 1 penny. Bets accepted in error for less than the minimum unit stake will be settled Ninnings will be paid on production of a valid unpaid betting slip (receipt) at any Coral shop, subject to our right under Winnings will be paid on production of a valid unpaid betting slip (receipt) at any Coral shop, subject to our right under the Rules to void winnings/withhold payments in certain circumstances. You agree that you will seek to claim any winnings as soon as possible after a winning bet is settled. For security reasons large amounts of cash are not held on the premises and Coral reserves the right to pay winnings by bank transfer either in full or in part. The majority of bets can be paid out immediately, but in some cases there may be a delay of up to five working days whilst the validity of the bet is verified and, as we made clear in the "Important Information" at the top of this poster, and as further explained in these Rules, there are circumstances when we may void winnings/withhold payments. We are also entitled to request Photo ID if we have reasonable concerns about the customer's identity, or as required by our legal and regulatory obligations, in order to verify a customer's identity prior to making payment on any bet, and we will not be able to make payment until any such requested ID has been provided and verified. to Eustrace pit is lost, the customer should return to the shop where the bet was placed with valid proof of identity e.g. Driving Licence or Passport). If a Showcast Tricast price is taken and one of the selections in the bet is a subsequent non-runner, then the bet will be settled as a Straight Forecast on the remaining two selections. If a Showcast Tricast price has been taken on a race where there is a subsequent non-runner which results in a Tattersalls Rule 4(c) deduction, then the Showcast price does not count and the bet will be settled at the Straight Tricast Dividend - if there is no Tattersalls Rule 4(c) deduction then the Showcast price will stand. 35. Ambiguous Bet instructions in most cases the member of staff will alert the customer that the bet instructions are ambiguous or obviously incorrect prior to the processing of the bet. If however, the error is not identified prior to the bet being processed, the bet will be settled according to our Rules. If the bet is not covered by the terms below, the stake will be divided equally over all the selections stated as win singles. The bet will be void if there is material information missing from it, or if it contains mistakes which make it impossible to settle according to our Rules. a) Multiple selections from different events:

If the selections stated on the betting slip are from different events but no bet instructions are included, bets will be settled as follows: 2 selections - Double; 3 or more - Doubles, Trebles and upwards. Any excess stake will be returned as void. The only exception to this will be if the stake can only be applied to a specific multiple bet, eg. if three selections are requested for a total stake of £7, the bet will be settled as £1 win Patent. Bets will be settled as win only unless each-way has been specifically stated on the betting slip. Any dividing line(s) drawn on the betting slip may be used in addition to the above criteria to determine what bet the customer intended to place. Where this remains unclear, a dividing line will be interpreted as the end of one bet and the beginning of another,

b) Two or more selections in the same race:
In Multiple bets the stake will be divided equally in all sections of the bet where the two selections clash. If specific instructions have not been given, the stake will be divided equally over all the selections stated as win singles. Where Match Bet is not stated, and no price or an incorrect price is taken, but "to beat" is written, it will be settled

If a name is stated on the betting slip, that name will stand as the selection even if it is incorrectly numbered or timed in any way. If a number is stated on the betting slip and it is unclear as to which selection it refers, the stakes shall be split proportionately over any reasonable interpretations of the selection. The following rules explain how bets will be settled if the selection named is unclear: Selection taking part in more than one race on the same day - If the selection is advertised to run in more than one race on the same day, the bet will be settled on the race (and meeting) taking place at the time stated in the bet instructions. If no time, or an incorrect time is stated, the bet will be settled on the first race the Name stated incorrectly – If the name of the selection does not refer to a runner in the selected race, the bet will stand if it is clear which selection was intended. If more than one name can be interpreted, the stake will be divided equally between the selections that could have been intended. Selection repeated in multiple bets – If the same selection is included more than once in a multiple bet it will be treated as a non-runner where it appears for the second (and any further) time. Horse/greyhound with the same name – If a selection is stated which could be applied to either a horse or greyhound running on the same day, the bet will be settled on the horse unless it is clear that a greyhound was intended, e.g. other greyhound bets were placed at the same time. If the selection is included in a horse multiple bet, the horse will count as the selection, and if it is included in a greyhound multiple bet, the greyhound will settled on the horse. If one of the selections has already run, the bet will stand on the remaining selection(s). If the only difference in two names is a suffix (included or omitted) - If the only possible difference in name is the country of origin as shown by a suffix (e.g. 'Fr' for 'France'), the bet will be settled on the selection with no suffix unless the suffix is detailed on the slip. If both names include a suffix but neither is stated, or in the rare instance of 2 selections running with the same name and no differentiating suffix, the bet will be settled on the first one to run, unless the time shown on the slip makes the selection clear. No selection stated - If a race time or meeting is stated without a selection, the bet will stand for the 1st Selections not competing against each other on the same day – If only one of the selections is taking part in a race/ event on the day indicated, the bet will revert to a win single on that selection. If neither selection is competing on the day indicated, the bet is void. In the case of a match bet, if one team has been selected to beat another and that match is not taking place, the bet will be settled as a single on the team selected to win. If that team is not playing, the bet is void.

I) Error regarding the meeting or race time: If racecard numbers, trap numbers or terms such as 'Favourite' have been stated on the betting slip, but it is not clear which race is intended, the following rules will apply: Time of the selection stated but no meeting – All single and multiple bets will stand for the meeting which does have a race at the time stated. The stake will be divided equally if there is more than one meeting with a race Time stated for a meeting that is not taking place – Bets will stand on the time stated. The stake will be divided equally if there is more than one meeting with a race at that time. If there is no race at that time, the bet will • No time/Incorrect time and no meeting stated – If the bet is a single (including Forecasts, Tricasts etc), it will stand for the next horse, greyhound or virtual race/event to go off (up to the official off time), which is covered by our Full Service, unless the word 'Trap' or 'T' indicates that a greyhound race/event was intended, or unless the selection makes it clear which race/event was intended. If there is more than one race/event taking place at the same time then the stake will be divided accordingly. In multiple bets the selection will be void.

No time/Incorrect time and the meeting named is not taking place. If the named horse or greyhound meeting is not taking place, the bet will be settled on the next race to run according to the type of meeting named. In multiple befs, the selection will be void. No time stated but meeting named – If no time is stated but the meeting is named, all single bets will be settled on the next race to run at the meeting named. In multiple bets the selection will be void unless the sequence of selections detailed on the slip makes the intended time clear. Incorrect time but meeting named – If the meeting named does not have a race at the time stated, all single bets (including Forecasts, Tricasts, etc) will be settled on the meeting which does have a race at the time stated. The stake will be divided equally if there is more than one meeting with a race at that time. If there is no meeting with a race at the time stated, all single bets will be settled on the next race to run at the meeting named. In multiple bets, the selection will be settled on the meeting which does have a race at the time stated. If there is more than one meeting with a race at that time, the selection(s) will be void. If there is no meeting with a race at that time, the selection will be void. This applies unless the sequence of selections detailed on Time and meeting stated for a race that has already taken place - If the correct time and meeting is stated, but Price taken identifies the intended race – If a price on a numbered selection has been taken and the selection and race on which that price was available when the bet was placed can be identified, the bet will stand for that race. This applies irrespective of the race time detailed on the betting slip. In the case of single bets if there is more than one race for which the numbered selection and price can be identified, the stake will be divided accordingly. For multiple bets, the selection will be void unless the sequence of selections makes it clear which

'Through-The-Card' (TTC) stated but no meeting named - If the numbered selections stated can be applied to greyhound racing, the bet will be settled on the next meeting due to take place on the full schedule after the bet was accepted. This applies unless the staking or time the bet was placed suggests that the bet was intended to only apply to races on the full schedule e.g. if a meeting on the full schedule consists of 10 races and four further races, a Through The Card bet which is staked for 10 races will be settled on the full schedule races only.

If a slip has been overstaked, the total returns from the whole of the slip will relate to the amount actually paid and a silp has been overstaked, the total returns from the whole of the slip will relate to the amount actually paid and alculated accordingly, thereby increasing any return due (le: the return will be multiplied by the amount paid and lyided by the amount that should have been paid). No overstaking will be returned. If there is only one selection on le slip and the stake unit does not correspond to the total amount paid, the total amount paid will determine the ake (eg: a £5 win with a total stake of £10 will be settled as a £10 win. Whereas a £5 each-way with a total stake of £20 will be settled as a £10 each-way). lf not enough is staked for the bets requested, or if the instructions given contain more than the correct number of selections, the bets will be settled to the stake paid but the returns will be reduced in line with the amount actually paid (i.e. the returns will be multiplied by the amount paid and then divided by the amount which should have been paid). If not enough is staked on a football coupon, all bets will stand and will be settled in proportion to the amount Equally Divided each-way bets are accepted if this is clearly stated on the betting slip. Equally Divided bets are not ocepted on Ante Post, football, sports betting or non-sporting events. If accepted in error, the bet will be settled

Conditional Bets
Conditional bets are accepted as detailed below. Please note that Conditional Bets are not accepted in Republic of reland. Ante Post selections cannot be included in conditional bets. If a conditional Ante Post bet is accepted in error, he conditional instructions will be ignored for settlement purposes (e.g. a Single Stakes About bet involving Ante Post selections will be settled as separate singles). Instructions must be clear and should be verified by a member of staff at the time the bet is placed. If an instruction is unclear or ambiguous, then the bet will be settled to the full table largeting the problement instruction. The purposes are consisted to expect the parts the control bets. If a conditional bets if accepted in error the take, ignoring the ambiguous instruction. Tote returns are not accepted in conditional bets. If accepted in error, the Any to Come (ATC) & Single Stakes About (SSA/Up and Down) - In Any to Come bets it must be clearly stated from Any to Come (ATC) & Single Stakes About (SSA/Up and Down) - In Any to Come bets it must be clearly stated from which selection(s) the conditional stake is to be taken and the specific amount to be re-invested. If a specific amount or 'All on' has not been stipulated, then the stake unit on the selection immediately preceding it will be taken as the amount to be re-invested. Should the preceding bet be a multiple one, then the maximum individual stake on that bet will determine the amount. Cash from one selection cannot go on to the same selection or event. In the event that Any to Come is accepted in error for the same selection or event, then the second selection will be treated as a non-runner. Bets will be processed in the order stipulated as far as funds will allow in accordance with the bet instructions. Should there be insufficient cash on hand to cover the whole bet, the Any to Come instruction will be followed as far as the cash will allow. Where there is insufficient cash to cover ATC bets involving each-way Singles, Doubles, Trebles etc, the bet will be settled in proportion to the amount available (i.e. the returns will be multiplied by the amount paid and divided by the amount which should have been paid). Where there is insufficient cash in hand to cover reversed or combination forecasts in any one race, the stake will be equally divided and an Up and Down bet will be settled as singles. Up and Down bets are taken to equal stakes; any excess stake is treated as a single on that selection. In deciding which part of the bet the Any to Come is to be taken, or to which part the Any to Come is to be applied, a drawn line will be interpreted as indicating the end of one bet and the beginning of another. Where crosses pplied, a drawn line will be interpreted as indicating the end of one bet and the beginning of another. Where crosses re used to indicate a Stakes About bet, settlement will be made as Single Stakes About, irrespective of the number sses written - bets will only be settled as Double Stakes About if this instruction has been clearly stated Stop At a Winner (SAW) and if Lose/If Win - These bets are only accepted on horses and greyhounds. In Stop At a Winner bets, a non-runner is not considered as a winner. The instructions 'If Win' or 'If Lose' will be treated as 'If Win or Non-runner' and 'If Lose or Non-runner'. The 'If Lose' or 'SAW' condition will only be applied to selections in different races. If a SAW bet on selections in the same race is accepted in error, then the bet will be settled as single bets. SAW bets will continue until one of the selections has won; or, in the case of each-way bets, has a return. The bet will be settled strictly in the order requested, irrespective of race times. Where the instruction 'If Winner' or 'Stop at Winner' is given, a dead heat will qualify. Walkovers will be settled as void if they happen as part of a conditional bet.

Rules of Racing - We accept bets on specified races staged under Jockey Club and National Hunt Rules in Great Britain and equivalent organisations abroad. Ion-runners and Tattersalls Rule 4 (c) scale of deductions ("Rule 4") on-runners and Tarrersains Rule 4 (c) scale or deductions ("Rule 4") if a horse is withdrawn before it comes 'under Starter's orders', or if the Starter decides that it has not taken part in the race, the selection will be treated as a non-runner If an Ante Post price is taken on a selection, which subsequently becomes a non-runner, the bet will be settled as a loser f the horse comes 'under Starter's orders' but refuses to race, the bet will be a loser

Winnings on bets placed on the remaining horses in the race may be reduced in line with Tattersalls Rule 4 (c) scale of deductions. The deduction is dependent on the non-runner's price, in that market, at the time the bet was accepted. If two or more horses are withdrawn, winnings will not be reduced under the Rule 4(c) scale of deductions by more than 90 pence in the £.

Each day we will offer Early Prices on selected horse races. These are available until the opening show prices from the racecourse. Early Prices are subject to Tattersalls Rule 4(c) scale of deductions. Should a horse be withdrawn 'not under orders' in an Early Price race, stakes on that selection will be returned. Bets on other runners in the race will be subject to a Rule 4 deduction based on the last Early Price available on the horse at the time the bet was accepted. Two Runner Races - If a race has 2 runners, all bets are accepted at Early Prices, Board Prices and SP. Forecast bets then bets will remain as a "single" on the first named selection at SP. Abandoned/Re-scheduled Races or Meetings - If the race is abandoned or declared void, all bets will be void. If a race or meeting is re-scheduled to later in the day bets stand. If meetings or races are moved to another day, then all bets placed after the final declarations are void. The only exception to the above is the Grand National (Aintree), where bets accepted after 10am on the day the final declarations are made will stand until that race is run, so long as the overnight declarations and race venue remain unchanged. Note: If a race is moved to a different surface at the same venue after the final declarations have been made then all bets will stand, unless the race distance is changed from the initially advertised race distance by over one furlong for a flat race or by over two furlongs for a race run under National Hunt rules (including National Hunt flat races), in which case bets will be void. Stakes will be refunded on non-runners where either the trainer opts not to run on the new surface or where the horse is balloted out due to a lower safety factor. Bets struck at prices prior to any withdrawals will be subject to the applicable 'Rule 4' deduction.

Aggregate Winning Distance - Bets are placed on the aggregate of the winning distances from one or more specified Horse Race meetings. If the winning distance is under one length the following numerical values will apply: Nose = 0.05, Short Head = 0.1, Head = 0.2,  $\frac{1}{2}$  Length = 0.2,  $\frac{1}{2}$  Length = 0.75. The maximum distance for any one race is: 12 lengths (flat race), 30 lengths (National Hunt race including National Hunt flat race). In the event of a walkover the following distances will apply: 12 lengths (National Hunt races including National Hunt flat races), 5 lengths (flat races). If only one horse finishes in a race then the following distances will apply: 12 lengths (flat races), 30 lengths (National Hunt face including National Hunt flat race). All distance bets will be settled on the original distance recorded by the winner who was first past the post. However, if a horse has taken the wrong course it will be ignored for distance betting and the aggregate winning distance will then be calculated between the first two runners past the post who have taken the correct course. If a meeting has three or more races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless the winning over band for the market has already been established, in which case ALL bets will stand (win or lose). If only one or two races are abandoned or declared void, bets will be settled with a default distance used for each abandoned or void race - 6 lengths (National Hunt race including National Hunt flat race), 2 lengths (flat races). Place Only Betting - This market is sometimes referred to as "Top 2/3/4 Finish". Place Only bets are not accepted

If an Early or Board Price is taken and a greyhound is then withdrawn, the bet will be settled at SP. If a Trap number is selected then the bet will be settled on the trap regardless of whether or not a reserve is running. However if a price is taken, this price relates to a specific greyhound and if that greyhound has become a non-runner, the bet will be void and the stake will be refunded. If a greyhound's name is selected and that selection becomes a non-runner the bet will be void and the stake will be refunded.

Re-scheduled races - If a race is re-scheduled to be run later on the same day, bets will be settled as follows: All single bets stand, unless a refund is requested prior to the off of the re-scheduled race Any selections for a re-scheduled race in a multiple bet will stand for that race

If the race does not take place all bets will be void If a Board or Early price has been taken on a re-scheduled race, bets will revert to SP Ante Post - Standard Ante Post rules apply with the following addition: Where a reserve greyhound is introduced runner would apply for bets taken up to the addition of the new runner.

Aggregate Winning Distance - The Aggregate Winning Distance is not affected by reserves, vacant traps, void races, meetings which are abandoned after they have started, or races where a Starting Price is not returned. The bet is a prediction of the total winning margin (distance between first and second placed greyhounds) of each race at a particular meeting. This market will be displayed in three bands e.g. Crayford Aggregate Winning Distances - under X lengths, between 'x and y' lengths, over 'y' lengths. For races won by less than a length, the following is awarded: Dead-Heat- O lengths, Short head=0.1 lengths, Head=0.2 lengths, Neck= 0.3 lengths, ½ length= 0.75 lengths. The maximum winning distance for a race is 10 lengths, if a meeting has one or two walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then bets will be settled with a default distance used for each walkover, abandoned or void race: 2 lengths. If a meeting has three or more walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless the winning band for the market has already been established, in which case all bets will stand. Same rules apply as above for combined meetings (single meeting aggregate winning distance: 2 lengths for walkovers/ abandoned/void races - 10 lengths maximum awarded per race). If any of the meetings combined has three or more walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless the winning band for the market has already been established, in which case all bets will stand.

Favourities index - The 'Favourities index' market relates to the aggregate performance of favourities over the course

Favourites Index - The 'Favourites Index' market relates to the aggregate performance of favourites over the course of a race meeting. The scoring system is as follows: Win = 25 points, 2nd = 10 points, 3rd = 5 points. In the case of joint or co favourites, the favourite will be deemed to be the one with the lowest trap number. In the event of no Starting Price being returned, the favourite will be the runner with the lowest price as published in the Racing Post. If there is a dead heat for any placing, the points for these runners will be added together and divided equally between the number of positions. All bets will be settled on the official result, after the weighed-in signal. If the meeting has 3 or more races abandoned or declared vold, then all bets will be void unless a winning market has already been established, in which case all bets stand. When only 1 or 2 races are abandoned or declared vold, bets will be void to facilit figure, of 10 points applied to each abandoned or void race. In the event of a wellower bets will be will be with a default figure of 10 points applied to each abandoned or void race. Evens or less = 15 points, 11/10 to 9/2 = 10 points, 5/1 or bigger = 5 points. If the favourite starts but does not finish

43. Virtual Racing and Virtual Sports
Virtual Racing and Virtual Sports are a computer-generated presentation of a random number draw, in which each number is represented by a different participant (e.g. horse, greyhound, racing car, football team etc). Winners and any placed selections are determined by a random number draw. Odds are set based on the number of times a participant is represented in the draw. The more times the participant is represented in the draw, the better the chances of being selected and therefore the shorter the price. Betting on Virtual Racing/Sports follows the same rules as for real sporting events. Selections taken from Virtual Racing/Sports may be combined with bets on other events (with the exception of other "Numbers' events). Selections taken from different Virtual Races/Sports may be combined in Win and each-way multiple bets (e.g. Doubles, Trebles, Accumulators, etc). Place only bets are not accepted. The place part of each-way bets will be settled in accordance with the place terms advertised at the time the bet was placed. For horseracing, a race is described as a handlcap to signify the place terms on this race alone; it does not indicate an equal chance for every horse.

cceptance of Bets - All football bets will be settled on 90 minutes play (also referred to as Full-time and normal Acceptance of Bets - All football bets will be settled on 90 minutes play (also referred to as Full-time and normal time). This denotes the period of play which includes time added by the Referee for injuries and other stoppages. This does not include scheduled extra time, or penalty shootouts, if played. In matches where penalty shootouts or extra time are due to take place, all bets are settled on 90 minutes unless an Outright price is specifically requested and confirmed at the time the bet is placed. Matches played at neutral venues are marked as such on our coupons the team listed on the left is still classed as the 'home' team for settlement purposes. A club team playing a European competition is classed as playing at home if the fixture is moved from the team's usual ground to another ground within their national boundaries. If a match is no longer played at the venue advertised, bets will stand as long as the venue remains in the same country and is not switched to the opponent's ground – should this occur, all bets will be vold. Bets will be accepted up to the advertised kick-off time or where 'Betting in Play' on the selected market is available. Where it is not available, bets will be valid if they are placed within five minutes of kick-off, providing there has been no score in the match or no player has been sent off. If a player has been sent off or there has been a goal, or a penalty has been awarded but not yet taken, then the bet will be vold and the stake returned. For bet in play matches, bets are usually accepted up to the 87th minute although market availability may change depending on the circumstances of the match. In addition, bets are also taken during extra-time and penalty shoot-outs where applicable. Where Coral has not quoted prices on a match, any single before that match will be vold and treated as a non-runner in multiple bets. Football pools panel forecasts of match results and newspaper or pools plans are not

non-runner in multiple bets. Football pools panel forecasts of match results and newspaper or pools plans are not ccepted or acknowledged for bet settlement purpose. If accepted in error, the bet will be deemed void. Extra Time Betting - Extra Time' is defined as any scheduled period of play between the end of normal time (i.e. 90 inutes play plus any time added on at the end of 90 minutes) and the end of the game. 'Extra Time' does not include penalty shoot-outs. All Extra Time betting markets, such as Correct Score, or Time of First Goal, will start from the beginning of extra time and not include normal time. For example, if the game finishes 2-2 at the end of normal time, and if there are no goals scored in extra time, then the Extra Time Correct Score will be settled as '0-0'. Goalscorer Bets - All goalscorer bets are offered on selected major games as advertised. Bets are settled or Goalscorer Bets - All goalscorer bets are offered on selected major games as advertised. Bets are settled on the player to score in the match within 90 minutes. We will make every effort to quote prices for all probable players. However, prices for unquoted players will always be available on request and those players will count as winners in the event that they score. If the only goal scored within 90 minutes is an own goal, then 'no goalscorer' will be deemed to have been the outcome. If a match is abandoned before a goal is scored, all bets are void. This includes 'no goalscorer' bets as these are offered on the basis of 90 minutes being played in the game. If the match is abandoned after goals have been scored, all First Goalscorer bets will stand, any Player to Score at Anytime bets already determined will be paid as winners, but all other goalscorer bets will be void. Where there is a dispute concerning who scored the goals in a match, bets are settled on the first result published by the official source/governing body or alternatively the official website of the relevant event, immediately after the match/event is finished - any subsequent corrections or amendments to this result will not apply for settlement purposes. If the

Is finished - any subsequent corrections or amendments to this result will not apply for settlement purposes. If the result is not immediately available from the official source/ governing body or the official website of the relevant event, or there is significant evidence that the official source/governing body or official website is incorrect, we will use independent sources such as the Press Association to decide settlement. In the absence of any consistent, independent evidence or in the presence of significant conflicting evidence, bets will be settled based on our owi statistics. after the first goal has been scored. Own goals do not count for First Goalscorer purposes and are ignored for settlement purposes. On some matches the First Goalscorer betting may be limited to one specific team. Last Goalscorer - All players taking part at any point of the match are deemed to have played for the purposes of Last Goalscorer bets, irrespective of whether they were on the pitch at the time the last goal is scored. Own goals core at Any Time/Score a Hat-Trick - All players taking part at any point of the match are deemed to have played Next Goalscorer (In-Play) - Requires you to predict the player that will score the next goal in the match. Only available In-Play. 90 minutes only, unless otherwise stated. All players that have taken some part in the game before the next goal is scored will be deemed runners. Bets on players that do not take any part in the game before the next goal is scored will be void. If there are no further goals scored "No Goalscorer" will be the winning selection. If no price is offered for "No Goalscorer" and no further goals are scored then all bets on the market will be void. Own goals do not count. If the next goal is an own goal the market will be settled on the next goal following the own goal. fodds are quoted for an own goal, where the next goal is an own goal bets on named players to score the next goal Scorecasts - Bets are accepted on regular play only. This market will be settled on the first player to score a 'legal goal' and the final score at the end of normal (plus any 'stoppage') time. Own goals do not count towards the first goal scorer but do towards the correct score. If a player does not enter the field of play during the game at all, or enters after the first 'legal goal' has been scored, then this player is deemed a 'non-runner' and any Scorecast bet including them will revert to a single on the selected final score at the prevailing odds. If a match is determined by 'own goals' only, and the player enters the field at any time, even as a 'substitute', then the Scorecast bet is a loser (as the player had the opportunity to be the first goal scorer). Similarly if the player is deemed a 'non-runner' in this instance, the Scorecast bet will revert to a single on the selected final score at the prevailing odds. If the game is abandoned at any time all bets will be void. Note that the Scorecast price will be different from the 'double' price for the two separate outcomes.

Abandoned matches – Any scheduled match abandoned before the completion of regular play will be made void even if the governing body declares the result of the shortened match to stand for competition purposes. Bets on which the outcome has already been determined at the time of abandonment will stand. For example, where the first goal has been scored by a named player, the First Goalscorer and Time of First Goal markets, amongst others, Suspended matches - Bets on any scheduled match suspended before the completion of regular play will be made Suspended matches – Bets on any scheduled match suspended before the completion of regular play will be made void if the match is not restarted on the same day (local time) and played to completion, even if the governing body declares the result of the shortened match to stand for competition purposes. Bets on which the outcome has already been determined at the time of suspension will stand. For example, where the first goal has been scored by a named player, the First Goalsocrer and Time of First Goal markets, amongst others, will stand. Where the match is concluded on the same day that it commenced (local time), all bets will stand, regardless of any suspension of play. Where markets are voided we will endeavour to make new betting markets on the event available as and when the respective governing body confirms details. Example 1: Real Madrid v Barcelona is 1-0 with the match suspended due to a crowd disturbance after 47 mins. Match does not continue on the same day but is played to a conclusion (48-90 mins) a week later. Any bets already determined are settled eg. Outright/Tournament & Handicap Betting - When odds for both Outright/Tournament and Handicap betting are advertised, bets will be settled on the Outright/Tournament result unless the Handicap price is specifically selected at the time the bet was placed. Where only Handicap betting is available bets will be settled as a Handicap bet whether selected or not. Wenue and Team Changes - For matches played at neutral venues, the team listed on the left are classed as the 'home' team. Bets on matches played at neutral venues will stand, unless the official fixture lists different team details to our scheduled match - bets in this scenario are void. A club team playing a European competition is classed as playing at home if the fixture is on a typically neutral ground - i.e. Arsenal and Tottenham playing Champions League home games at Wembley. If a match is no longer played at the venue advertised, bets will stand as long as the venue remains in the same country and is not switched to the opponent's ground. Should this occur, all bets will be void. For International tournaments if the Host venue is changed bets will still stand. If for any reason a draw does not take place, the bet(s) placed will stand for the next available draw - if the system cannot provide another draw within 10 seconds, it will void the bet(s). A display on the screen will notify the customer if this happens and the balance will be adjusted. The minimum and maximum stakes will depend on the type of event selected. Specific rules for each vent are displayed on the terminal. Winnings will be paid on production of a valid bar-coded receipt printed by the erminal.
